

Located in Reith bei Kitzbühel, the Pfandl has embodied hospitality and family tradition for 30 years. Especially in the winter months, when snow is falling outside, the flames crackle in the open fireplace and create the cosiest atmosphere imaginable. The Hagleitner family and their long-serving staff provide a hearty service. Chef Thomas Hagleitner delights his guests with traditional and international dishes, and the Pfandl's wine cellar is always wonderfully stocked with an elegant selection.

This is the ideal place for anyone who values authentic Tirolean cooking and hospitality. The Pfandl commits to catering to all guests, whether they have limited mobility or not, in order to ensure that every last visitor feels welcome.
