

Andreas Gabalier invites to Kitzbühel

8th Kitzbühel Music Festival on August 19th and 20th, 2022.

11.08.2022 / From August 19th to 20th, 2022, the Kitzbühel Music Festival will be celebrating its 8th anniversary this year and will bring something new to the program. Andreas Gabalier & Friends promise a colorful and promising program on Friday evening. On Saturday, the singer from Styria and his band will create a great atmosphere.

A giant fun in the Kitzbühel tennis stadium

When the traditional costumes from dirndl to lederhosen are brought out, it's time again for the unique music festival Kitzbühel with folk rock'n'roller Andreas Gabalier. This year, as usual, the unique open-air concert with a terrific atmosphere will take place in the Tennis Arena in Kitzbühel.

Already on Thursday, a warm up to the music weekend will be held in Kitzbühel's city center, when the audience will be put in a great mood with a stage at Hotel Das Reisch. One day before the big concert, a great and new format will be celebrated by Andreas Gabalier & Friends on Friday, August 19th, 2022. The Friends, specially selected by him, will bring the stadium to tremble together with the superstar from Styria. This time, the German comedian Mario Barth, the Irish singer Johnny Logan, the pop singer Sasha, who was celebrated as a teen heartthrob in the 1990s, and the likeable thoroughbred musician Gregor Meyle will also be performing. In addition, the rock'n'roll band The Monroes as well as Tirolerisch g'spielt, who are dedicated to pop and folk music, are also part of the party. After a forced break of two years, Andreas Gabalier will perform together with his band for the eighth time in ten years in the Gamsstadt on Saturday, August 20th, 2022 and thrill the audience during an unforgettable evening.
