

Family fun in Kitzbühel invites you to marvel & enjoy

Kitzbühel street art festival celebrates second edition.

17.06.2022 / Beautiful moments of joy for the whole family promise the unique event of the Kitzbühel Street Art Festival on Friday, June 24th, 2022 in downtown Kitzbühel, when a wide variety of artists will once again amaze locals and guests alike.

Acrobatics & Co. convince in the Kitzbühel city center

After two years of the Corona forced break, the Kitzbühel Street Art Festival, initiated for the first time in 2019, celebrates its revival! The colorful and varied festival plays the city center at several venues. With free admission, the artists offer street art at the highest level. The event starts at 3.00 pm and takes place in all weathers.

The program variety guarantees a lot of experience and leaves nothing to be desired: The offer ranges from music and acrobatics to theater and clowning to street art. There is also a children's program with a glitter tattoo station and painting animation. The numerous program items in the arcade courtyard of the Kitzbühel district administration as well as in the Vorderstadt and Hinterstadt are waiting to be marveled at by onlookers. Among others, the ring acrobat Mr. Dyvinetz from Chile, the duo Clown and a Drummer consisting of Olivia Swoboda-Weinstein and Stefan Swoboda with a mix of acrobatics and clowning, the One Man Band musician Mark Di Giuseppe from Chicago as well as the musician Mario Parizek with his guitar present their performances to the audience. Also the soap bubble art of Clara as well as the street painting of Jessica provides time to dream and admire.
