

Kitzbühel nominated at the World Ski Awards

7 nominations for the most legendary sports city in the Alps

The World Ski Awards, headquartered in London, have once again nominated Kitzbühel for this prestigious award. As part of its activities, the organisation evaluates and recognises ski resorts on a global level using a carefully coordinated catalogue of criteria. The nomination was made in the category "Austria's Best Ski Resort 2023", among others.

The recognition by the World Ski Awards underlines Kitzbühel's impressive position in winter sports tourism. The award "Austria's Best Ski Resort 2023" is not only a confirmation of first-class performance, but also a decisive step towards a sustainable presence on national and international markets.

World Ski Awards™ is a unique initiative dedicated to recognising, rewarding and celebrating excellence in ski tourism. Aimed at bringing the industry closer together, it aims to promote innovation, local development and prosperity.

Kitzbühel's nomination for this prestigious award is another sign of the exceptional quality and attractiveness of the ski resort. The decision of the World Ski Awards underlines Kitzbühel's tireless efforts to offer all guests an unparalleled experience while pursuing sustainable development strategies.

The final award will be announced at a ceremony recognising the best ski resorts from around the world. Kitzbühel has the opportunity to compete with the world's leading ski destinations and demonstrate its commitment to first-class services and unforgettable winter experiences.

Kitzbühel Tourism's nomination for "Austria's Best Ski Resort 2023" not only highlights the ski resort's impressive reputation, but also sets a benchmark for the future by focusing on excellence and sustainable development. This success strengthens Kitzbühel's position as a pioneer in ski tourism and a magnet for discerning winter sports lovers worldwide.
