Concert in the style of "small but nice"

Craig Hinds and his band members warm up with their new album "Elephant in The Room" at the Hotel A-ROSA Resort in Kitzbühel, heralding their European tour. In an informal atmosphere, the musicians will present their new songs live and up close, and also bring world hits like "Indigo Girl" to life. Simple, and just different, the musicians will present themselves far away from concert halls within the fascinating castle architecture of the resort.

Experience a unique club concert with free admission.
