Description

From the railway station in Brixen i.Th., the route leads for approx. 1.5 km in the settlement area on the asphalt road along the Brixenbach stream. Shortly after the bridge, the route continues on the forest path along the Brixenbach stream, past the turn-off for the Brixenbachalm snack station. The partly winding route leads through wooded alpine pastures to the Wiegalm (1,507 m). Here you have the option of continuing directly to Kirchberg via the MTB route Kobingerhütte (MTB 257) or via the Wiegalmtrail (MTB 277) to MTB route 204 and continue to Kirchberg or Aschau.
