Description

The extended tour to the Lämmerbühelalm starts at the tourist information office in the village centre of Fieberbrunn. The tour leads along the Pletzerache into the valley through meadows and sparse woodland. From the "Herrgottbrücke" junction, a steep uphill, winding forest path begins via the Schlinachalmen to the panoramic view of the Lachtalhöhe at 1,670 metres. The tour now leads downhill to the Lämmerbühelalpe, where a refreshment stop will make you forget your exertions and recharge your batteries for the return journey, which follows the same route.
