Altitude profile

Description

Starting with around 3km on a paved road, this route then turns to gravel and takes you past the Reisenberg up to the Hornköpflsee lake on the Kitzbüheler Horn. There are lots of great views along the way, and especially at the top by the lake. Return via the same route to get back to the start, or alternatively cycle down to Kitzbühel via the Trattalm and Alpenhaus, and long the Panoramastrasse. The Hornköpfl restaurant is a great place to stop, next to the lake at the top of the route.
