Description

From the tourist office Fieberbrunn, the route starts along the Ache in the direction of Gasthof Eiserne Hand / Lärchfilzhochalm. After approx. 3 km turn right, follow the steadily uphill road and pass the Niederfilzboden farm. Shortly after the chapel, the forest road begins, leading first through the forest and later through the "Lärchfilzen" alpine pasture area. At the Lärchfilzhochalm, it is possible for less experienced cyclists to choose the variant via the "Jägersteig" to the Wildalpgatterl mountain inn. To do this, turn right and follow the path that climbs gently at first through the alpine pasture area and then descends through the beech forest to the mountain inn. More experienced bikers can choose the gravel path that climbs to the right past the Grießenbodenalmen to the Wildalmen. At the cable car hut and the Frandlalm, continue straight on to the Koglhöhe. This is where the share trail to the mountain inn starts - please be considerate and look ahead! Pass the Wildalpgatterl mountain inn on the left and after approx. 300 m turn left again. The first bends towards Zillstattalm are somewhat steeper! The downhill forest road winds through green meadows to the asphalt road. The trail leads past the Lauchsee lake and straight on back to the starting point.
