Description

The tour starts at the information office in Going, passes the Raiffeisenbank to the fire brigade car park and then turns left on the Aupromenade along the Goinger Hausbach to the Stanglwirt. Past the football pitch, the route runs along the main road towards Reith for a while, turn right before the bridge and cycle towards the "Hollenauer Kreuz", offering wonderful views of the Wilder Kaiser and the Kitzbüheler Horn time and again. After the Plattenteich pond and a sharp right-hand bend, cycle uphill for approx. 600 metres and turn left towards Kathen at the next farm. Continue along the road (alternating between asphalt and gravel) until you turn left downhill towards Ellmau. Turn right at the church and cycle through the village (numerous stops invite you to stop for refreshments). Return to the starting point on the old road, past the Astberg cable car.
