Description

The starting point of the trail can be reached either via the MTB route Wiegalm (MTB 210, Brixen i.Th.) or via MTB route Kobingerhütte (MTB 257, Kirchberg). Actually much more than "just" a trail, it is the icing on the cake of two wonderfully beautiful tours, which offer everything you need for a perfect bike day, both in terms of scenery and culinary delights. The Wiegalmtrail is a natural trail with stone and root passages that lead smoothly and moderately into the valley. It leads over a narrow hiking trail, which is partly designated as a shared trail - please pay extra attention.
