Altitude profile

Description

From the Brander-Reibe car park, the route ascends along a gravel road next to the Auracher Graben. The route gets steeper in places as it starts to climb up the side of the valley, past the Wildalm and up to the Hochwildalm (1,554m). At the Hochwildalm you will find a selection of snacks and local specialities, made from regional products. Tip: The Koidl family at the Wildalm also make delicious mountain cheese. Take the same route back to the starting point.
