

Dr. med. Hans Halten

Today, more and more value is placed on a fresh, relaxed appearance. Our therapeutic claim is to achieve a natural-looking result, according to the principle "less is often more".

Description

Due to our many years of experience in the field of wrinkle therapy, we only use certified brand products. All products are optimally coordinated with each other and can be specifically combined in the treatment.

The practice is located in Reith bei Kitzbühel, private parking in front of the house. Flexible appointments can be made by telephone. Home visits are also possible in the vicinity of the practice.
