Description

The Jochberger waterway starts from the hiking information center in the center of Jochberg. The route leads past the 'Martenhof' farmhouse to the Antlassbrunnen fountain, which is part of the '7 Fountain Trail'. From there, it continues to the valley lift station of the 'Wagstättbahn' gondola, past the 'Hanslerhof' to the "Vorderkünstler" farmhouse museum where you get an insight into the history of Jochberg. Finally, the route passes the Jochberg 'Waldschwimmbad' swimming pool and leads along the Jochberger Ache stream back to the starting point.
