Description

The historic miner's house 'Kelchalpe', surrounded by old gallery entrances and ruins from copper mining, is today a rustic DAV hut, renovated according to 'Klima aktiv' standard and serves summer and winter as a starting point for beautiful family hikes and ski tours in the Kitzbühel Alps. On the sunny terrace or at the cozy tiled stove you can enjoy peace and relaxation and be spoiled with homemade Tyrolean dishes, refined with wild herbs from the alpine meadows.

Gladly beautiful birthday parties or barbecues with campfire can be organized. Groups and company events are also possible, mountain & hiking guides can be arranged and toboggans for the 5 km long natural toboggan run can be rented. Directions: from Kitzbühel through Aurach, turn off at Gasthaus Hechenmoos and follow the signs. Ascent: from the summer parking lot approx. 20-30min on foot.

In winter via natural toboggan run approx. 1-1.5h. Tours: from easy: Laub-/Saalkogel, Rauber, to demanding: ridge hike Schütz - Gamshag or Tristkogel via ferrata (C/D) Mountain bike: from parking lot Kapelle, approx. 40min, moderately difficult Ski & snowshoe tours: Attention! Powder snow ;-) Overnight stay: approx. 60 beds in heated double rooms and dormitories, shower.
