

Mountain restaurant Hagstein

Products from the own farm, own butchery, regionality. Accessible by car. The days off are variable and can be seen on the homepage: www.gasthof-hagstein.at

Description

Located right on the Kitzbüheler Horn, opposite the famous Hahnenkamm and above town, this is the place for tradition and style. Those fleeing the city and nature lovers meet here to treat themselves to regional fare made by using our own produce, or to some light meals. At the wooden tables there is plenty of room for cosy get-togethers and for bigger affairs too; private celebrations and company parties will also be unforgettable. It is an 8 minute drive to the guest-house, which can also be accessed on foot via numerous hiking trails. For instance you can take the Hornbahn cable cars to the intermediate station, then enjoy a leisurely 40 minute walk to the Hagsteinhof.
