Description

This trail starts opposite the Wagstätt Gondola in Jochberg where parking is also available. Head south towards Jochberger Forest, following the signs through Jochberg/Gauxbichl, then slightly downhill on Kupfstatt ally until reaching the Jochberger River. At the Sinterbach Bridge, turn into the Sintersbach-Gorge. A steadily climbing trail follows the creek, offering a pleasant run, especially cool in summer or rather wild in bad winter weather. After about 3.7 km, cross the creek and briefly descend towards the forest road before going uphill again on the trail. Continue following the signs, with a short climb followed by another descent back towards Jochberg. The route mostly consists of downhill trails until reaching the Jochberger River. A final short uphill trail section brings you back to the starting point.
