Description

Imperial views, delicious regional specialities and the warm hospitality of the Seidlalm team - these are the ingredients for unforgettable days up there. 1206 metres of altitude ensure lightness and a clear head! Located directly on the legendary 'Streif', the Seidlalm has always been a place full of stories - such as the idea for the Alpine Ski World Cup in 1966 or the childhood of skiing prodigy Hansi Hinterseer.

In SUMMER - Partner: Breakfast on the mountain from 9 to 11.30 for EUR 20.50.

On all Saturdays, Sundays, public holidays & window days! Open daily from 9 am to 5 pm -> kitchen until 4 pm.
