Description

The Sintersbach Graben Loop starts opposite the Wagstätt Gondola in Jochberg, where parking is also available. From the start, head south towards Jochberger Wald, following the signs through Jochberg/Gauxbichl, then slightly downhill on Kupfstatt ally until reaching the Jochberger River. At the Sinterbach Bridge, turn into the Sintersbach Gorge. This trail steadily climbs along the creek, providing a runnable ascent that is pleasantly cool in summer or rustically wild in bad weather. Just below the Sintersbach Waterfall, cross the creek and descend briefly on a forest road before ascending again on a trail. Following the signs, the trail ascends briefly and then descends back towards Jochberg. The route continues downhill, mostly on trails, until reaching the Jochberger River. A final short uphill trail section brings you back to the starting point.
