Description

Start the Wilder Kaiser Panorama Trail in the Kitzbühel holiday village of Reith, behind the church. After a few meters, join the trail with a gentle incline leading into the forest. During the ascent, take occasional looks back for beautiful views of Reith and the Kitzbühel basin. At Scharwandalm (hut), the trail ends, and you turn right onto the forest road, following the "Kaiserblick" signs.

After a short distance on the forest road, rejoin a trail that rewards you with stunning views of the Wilder Kaiser. Enjoy the flowy path until the junction to "Rauhen Kopf" with the Peace Cross. Here, you get a magnificent view into Spertental with Großer Rettenstein Mountain and further towards the Hohe Tauern National Park Mountains.

For the downhill, follow the "Hennleiten" signs, leading you through a beautiful forest trail. Those who stay dry and clean here probably didn't have enough fun. In the lower section, forest paths alternate with roads until you reach "Hennleiten." Turn back towards Reith and run through the valley bottom to return to the starting point.
